

1.4.2 Feedback process of the Institution - ACTION TAKEN REPORT

S.N O	Suggestions and Recommendations (2022-2023)		Action Taken Report (2023-2024)
1	Social Work	Soft skills pertinent to Social Work will be incorporated into the curriculum, along with the introduction of papers related to tribal development.	The syllabus for soft skills has been revised, and the tribal development paper will be introduced in Semester IV.
2	Commerce (General)	Students showed interest in learning subjects related to the fundamentals of computers.	The university introduced skill enhancement papers focused on computer-based topics.
3	BCA Shift I	Some employers may prioritize candidates with skills and knowledge aligned with the latest technologies and practices, making it harder for individuals with outdated skills to compete in the job market.	Skill enhancement courses were introduced by the university such as Computer Organization and Quantitative Aptitude, Core paper syllabus is updated to compete in the job market.
4	B.Sc(Computer Science) Shift I	A suggestion has been made regarding the practical knowledge required for the curriculum.	For this suggestion, the department has organized a Hackathon in both hardware and software-oriented fields.
5	Management	A suggestion has been given to change the third unit of Operations Management because the same topics are appearing the Materials Management also	For this suggestion latest video lectures are shown to students to enrich their knowledge in operations management and how it can be differentiated from Materials Management.
6	English	PG: A suggestion has been proposed to enhance practical exposure in English subjects. PG: A suggestion to update students on newer subjects was given UG: Foreign Language Certification was requested by alumni and students	For this suggestion, a national-level workshop was conducted on the topic of Mechanics of Writing. PG students enrolled in NPTEL subjects UG : Japanese for Beginners was introduced.
7	Psychology	A suggestion has been made to provide greater practical exposure in psychology-oriented subjects.	For this suggestion, a national-level workshop was conducted on topics such as Psychological Autopsy, the Role of Psychologists in Defence, and Psychodiagnostics.
8	B.Com(Accou nting and Finance) (Shift I)	Students have requested updates in the subjects.	To address this, students were enrolled in NPTEL courses relevant to their curriculum. This initiative enables them to stay updated with the subjects.
9	B.Com (General) Shift II	It is recommended to include internship programs to gain hands-on experience and foster a stronger connection between academic learning and professional practice.	Establishing partnerships with organizations will create internship opportunities, enabling students to acquire practical experience and apply theoretical knowledge to real-world professional contexts.
10	B.Com(Corpor ate	Students have requested topics related to their syllabus, such as Tally and GST classes.	As a response to this suggestion, action has been taken, including signing the MoU

	Secretaryship) - Shift I		and conducting classes on how to file GST.
11	B.Com(Corporate Secretaryship) - Shift II	Students have requested information on recent trends in certain subjects.	In response to this suggestion, the subject teacher covered recent trends through conducting workshops, seminars, and conferences.
12	B.Com (Accounting & Finance) Shift II	The suggestion is to invite industry professionals for guest lectures, offering insights into real-world scenarios and providing networking opportunities.	In response to this suggestion includes initiating guest lectures by industry professionals to provide students with insights into real-world scenarios and networking opportunities.
13	BCA (Shift II)	Students requested industrial exposure and practical difficulties in mathematics paper	Industry visit and invited talks organised. Mathematics syllabus reduced by the university
14	B.Sc(Computer Science)(Shift II)	Students are expecting more practical hours and they should be focused in software development	Industrial visit was arranged and students were given internships with payment and 2 students were placed. students are encouraged to develop more softwares
15	Media Studies	In the Visual Communication curriculum, videography practical was not included. Likewise, in the Electronic Media curriculum, photography and image editing were not included.	In the 2nd semester, Visual Communication included photo and videography, while Electronic Media included photography and image editing.
16	Mathematics	Computer-based subjects should be included in the curriculum.	Offering certificate courses based on computer subjects.