PATRICIAN COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCE:

Patrician College of Arts and Science, established in 2001, is a Christian minority coeducational self-financing institution affiliated to the University of Madras. It was instituted by the Brothers of St. Patrick, a congregation established by Bishop Daniel Delany on 2nd February 1808, in Ireland. With a noble spirit to serve humanity, the Patrician Brothers stepped into the vocation of educating the youth to free them from the bonds of ignorance. With their exceptional skill in leadership, governance and the strong hand of the Almighty, the congregation has established schools & colleges throughout the world. In consonance with the philosophy of Brothers' congregation, the college aims at providing quality education to the youth of today with utmost sincerity.

To facilitate this, the management has been keen in building the faculty with qualified teachers, pooling in resources from different platforms, and installing state- of- the art infrastructural facilities. Moreover, they back up students with a number of support services on and off campus. Along with curricular and co-curricular activities, they constantly insist that a sense of social conscience has to be instilled in the minds of students. In view of this, several outreach programmes are conducted wherein students enthusiastically participate and do a better service.

GOOD GOVERNANCE AND EFFECTIVE PARTICIPATION

INTRODUCTION

Recently the terms "governance" and "good governance" are being increasingly used in development literature. Bad governance is being increasingly regarded as one of the root causes of all evil within our societies. Major donors and international financial institutions are increasingly basing their aid and loans on the condition that reforms that ensure "good governance" are undertaken.

The concept of "governance" is not new. It is as old as human civilization. Simply put "governance" means: the process of decision-making and the process by which decisions are implemented (or not implemented). Governance can be used in several contexts such as corporate governance, international governance, national governance and local governance. Since governance is the process of decision making and the process by which decisions are implemented, an analysis of governance focuses on the formal and informal actors involved in decision-making and implementing the decisions made and the formal and informal structures that have been set in place to arrive at and implement the decision.

OVERVIEW

The session started with a story time which described communication in an exam hall and further explained about the various types of communication and how a grievance petition was written. The session continued with the process of explaining about how an RTI should be filed and an emergency case in the High Court of Madras with the help of an organisation was given as an example. The resource person explained the role of RTI and the various types of RTI and various examples of RTI. The resource person cleared all the doubts of the students on how the government works and what is the role and functions of Governmnet RTI. The session discussed how RTI can be useful for a student and how RTI can be used for competitive exams for research scholars to get scholarships extra. RESOURCE PERSON PROFILE:

Hailing from a family of successful first generation entrepreneurs, Aishwarya Kalpathi never had to look elsewhere for inspiration. A Political Science degree from St. Xaviers College in Mumbai and a Master's degree in Management from Warwick Business School in UK, have enabled Ms. Aishwarya to synthesize her interests in political advocacy and entrepreneurship.

In today's rigidly opinionated world, Aishwarya aims to promote a culture of dialogue to strengthen our vibrant democracy, while reminding citizens that rights and duties go hand in hand. YUVA Active Advocacy Forum, a not-for-profit enterprise, is the brainchild of Aishwarya. In her endeavor to enhance political participation, political awareness and civic education, Aishwarya has ably steered her organization to significant heights in a short span. Within a year YUVA has empowered more than 2,000 students of varying academic backgrounds in Chennai, Tiruvallur and Kanchipuram through workshops about Right to Information, Public Interest Litigation, and The Constitution of India to name a few.

She has also successfully conceptualized and created a one of its kind web platform where citizens are connected to their local representatives, and can voice their opinions fearlessly. An exhaustive database of MPs and MLAs who are contesting elections (including their educational qualifications, criminal record etc.), and a campaign feature, where citizens can draw the attention of their local representatives to civic issues, are the crowning features of this platform. Also, users are free to submit articles to share their opinions, and engage in discussion forums on topics that are of importance. Through YUVA, she has recently organized a national seminar on "Celebrating Secularism" in collaboration with Loyola college. To infuse politics with the much needed academic rigor, Aishwarya is working towards building a leadership institute, where aspiring young politicians will be trained by the best minds in the country for a career in politics.

Through these education, empowerment and leadership initiatives at YUVA, Aishwarya has only begun to work towards her vision of bringing political advocacy back in vogue. Armed with a clear vision to take YUVA to every part of the country, and build a reliable name for her not for profit enterprise, Aishwarya stands as a clear example of the fact that business interests need not be divorced from social responsibility.
