One Year of Naan Mudhalvan Celebration Vetri Padhaiyil

Vetri Padhaiyil “Naan Mudhalvan” celebrated the success of the Naan Mudhalvan programme that has skilled 13 Lakh students in its First Years. The program is presided by the Hon’ble Chief Minister of Tamilnadu , Thiru. M.K.Stalin in the presence of Hon’ble Minister for Youth Welfare, Sports Development , Special Programme implementation Thiru Udhayanidhi Stalin at Jawaharlal Nehru, Indoor Stadium, Chennai on 7th August 2023

The State of Tamil Nadu has a mission of upskilling 10 lakh youth year on year so as to make the candidates industry-aligned and competent to get new-age jobs in their respective areas of specialization.

Around 57 students across the departments participated in the event and benefitted.

Objective:

The objective of the Faculty Development Program on "Learn to Touch Interactive Board" was to familiarize faculty members with the effective use of an interactive touch panel for teaching purposes. The program aimed to provide participants with hands-on experience and practical knowledge about the various applications available on the Raptor Interactive touch panel.

No of Beneficiaries – 15 Staff members from PG & Research Department of Commerce

Report

The Faculty Development Program on "Learn to Touch Interactive Board" was successfully conducted on June 21, 2023, from 1:15 pm to 2:15 pm in Room No. 32. The program aimed to familiarize faculty members with the effective use of an interactive touch panel, specifically the Raptor Interactive touch panel, for teaching purposes.

The program began with an introduction by Mr. R.J. Yuvnesh Kumar, Assistant Professor from the Department of Commerce, who served as the trainer for the session. Mr. Kumar provided an overview of the benefits and advantages of utilizing an interactive touch panel in the classroom.

During the session, Mr. R.J. Yuvnesh Kumar demonstrated various applications available on the Raptor Interactive touch panel. Participants were given hands-on experience with the touch panel and were guided on how to use its features effectively. The applications covered included creating engaging presentations, annotating content, accessing multimedia resources, and facilitating real-time collaboration with students.

Throughout the program, participants actively engaged in the learning process, asking questions and seeking clarification on different aspects of using the interactive touch panel. Mr. R.J. Yuvnesh Kumar effectively addressed their queries and provided practical insights on incorporating the touch panel into their teaching practices.

By the end of the program, participants had gained increased awareness of the functionalities and capabilities of the interactive touch panel. They were equipped with the necessary knowledge and skills to leverage this technology in their classrooms effectively. The session successfully achieved its objectives of enhancing teaching techniques, improving student engagement, and fostering collaborative learning environments.

The Faculty Development Program on "Learn to Touch Interactive Board" received positive feedback from the participants, who expressed their appreciation for the informative and engaging session delivered by Mr. R.J. Yuvnesh Kumar. They found the program to be valuable and expressed confidence in incorporating the interactive touch panel into their future teaching endeavors.

Outcome:

The Faculty Development Program was successful in achieving its objectives. The participants gained valuable insights and practical skills related to the use of an interactive touch panel for teaching. The program had the following outcomes:

- 1. Increased Awareness: Participants developed an understanding of the benefits and advantages of using an interactive touch panel in the classroom. They became aware of the various applications and features offered by the Raptor Interactive touch panel.
- 2. Enhanced Teaching Techniques: The program empowered faculty members to incorporate innovative teaching techniques using the interactive touch panel. Participants learned how to create engaging presentations, annotate content, access multimedia resources, and collaborate with students in real-time.
- 3. Improved Student Engagement: By exploring the applications on the Raptor Interactive touch panel, participants discovered new ways to engage students and make the learning process more interactive. The program emphasized the importance of student-centered learning and provided strategies for active student participation.
- 4. Effective Content Delivery: Faculty members learned how to effectively deliver content using the interactive touch panel. They gained proficiency in using the various tools and applications to present information in a visually appealing and interactive manner, thus enhancing student comprehension and retention.
- 5. Collaborative Learning: The program emphasized the collaborative learning potential of the interactive touch panel. Participants learned how to encourage student collaboration and facilitate group activities using the touch panel's features, fostering a cooperative and interactive learning environment.
- 6. Technological Competence: Through hands-on practice, participants developed the necessary technological skills to operate the Raptor Interactive touch panel effectively. They gained confidence in utilizing the panel's features and applications, thereby enhancing their overall technological competence.

Industrial Visit
15th March 2024
Stock Exchange Board of India, Chennai

Objective:

The objective of the industrial visit to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) in Chennai was to provide first and second-year students with insights into the regulatory framework and operations of SEBI in the financial markets. The visit aimed to enhance students' understanding of securities regulation, investor protection, and the role of SEBI in maintaining market integrity.

About the Company:

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is the regulatory body for securities and commodity market in India under the administrative domain of Ministry of Finance within the Government of India. It was established on 12 April 1988 as an executive body and was given statutory powers on 30 January 1992 through the SEBI Act, 1992. In the year 1992, Securities and exchange Board of India (SEBI) Act was passed. The objectives of SEBI are – to protect the interest of investors in securities and to promote the development of and to regulate the securities market.

Report:

The students were briefed on SEBI's mandate to regulate the securities market and protect the interests of investors, ensuring transparency, fairness, and efficiency in the capital markets.

The visit included informative sessions and presentations covering various aspects of SEBI's regulatory framework, including:

Overview of SEBI's Role and Functions

Regulatory Framework for Securities Market Operations

Investor Education and Protection Initiatives

Enforcement Mechanisms and Market Surveillance

Recent Developments and Regulatory Updates

The students had the opportunity to interact with SEBI officials and gain insights into the practical aspects of securities regulation and enforcement. They learned about SEBI's efforts to promote investor awareness, prevent market abuse, and facilitate the development of robust capital markets in India.

Outcome:

The industrial visit to SEBI in Chennai was a valuable learning experience for the students, offering insights into the regulatory landscape of the securities market and the critical role played by SEBI in safeguarding investor interests and maintaining market integrity.

The PG & Research Department of Commerce at Patrician College of Arts & Science College hosted an insightful seminar on the topic "G20 Impact on Developing Countries" on August 25, 2023. The event aimed to shed light on the significant role of the G20 in shaping the economic landscape of developing countries and fostering global cooperation. The seminar was enriched by the presence of distinguished guests and speakers, making it a noteworthy event in the academic calendar.

Objective of the Program

The primary objective of the seminar was to provide a comprehensive understanding of how the G20, as a major international forum for economic cooperation, affects developing countries. The program aimed to delve into the economic, social, and political implications of G20 policies and decisions, thereby enhancing participants' awareness of the global economic dynamics.

Report

1. Prayer and Opening Remarks:

The seminar began with a heartfelt prayer, setting a contemplative and respectful tone for the proceedings. This was followed by the opening remarks from the host, acknowledging the significance of the seminar's theme and its relevance to the global economic landscape.

2. Introduction by Dr. D. Unika:

Dr. D. Unika, the Head of PG & Research Department of Commerce at Patrician College of Arts and Science, welcomed the participants and introduced the seminar's theme - "G20 Impact on Developing Countries." She highlighted the G20's role as a key global economic forum and its implications for economies in the developing world.

3. Guest Introduction - Dr. V. Anbarasu:

The guest of honor, Dr. V. Anbarasu, Head of the Department of Economics at Annai Violet Arts and Science College, was introduced with a brief overview of his accomplishments and expertise. His rich background in economics and global economic policies lent weight to his insights on the seminar's topic.

4. Honoring the Guest - Shawl Presentation:

A moment of honor and respect was extended as Mr. R.J. Yuvnesh Kumar, [Designation and College Name], presented Dr. V. Anbarasu with a shawl as a token of appreciation for his presence and contribution to the seminar.

5. Seminar Presentation by Dr. V. Anbarasu:

Dr. Anbarasu began by contextualizing the G20 (Group of Twenty) as a premier international forum for discussing and coordinating global economic policy. He emphasized the diverse representation of member countries, which include both developed and developing economies. The presentation aimed to explore how G20 decisions and policies influence the economic landscape of developing nations.

Dr. Anbarasu provided a historical overview of the G20's establishment in 1999, following the financial crises of the late 1990s. He explained that the G20 initially focused on addressing financial and economic issues but has since expanded its scope to include broader policy discussions. Its composition includes major advanced economies and emerging markets, representing a diverse set of economic interests.

G20's Role in Global Economic Governance:

The presentation highlighted the G20's pivotal role in global economic governance. Dr. Anbarasu discussed its position as a platform where world leaders and policymakers engage in high-level discussions on various economic challenges and opportunities. He emphasized that G20 decisions often influence international policies and actions, making it a significant force in shaping the global economic agenda.

G20 Initiatives for Developing Countries:

Dr. Anbarasu delved into specific initiatives and policies that the G20 has designed to benefit developing countries:

Financial Stability: The G20 has played a crucial role in enhancing financial stability and resilience in developing economies by promoting regulations and reforms to prevent future financial crises.

Trade Policies: Discussions within the G20 have led to agreements on trade liberalization and facilitation, which can positively impact the export-oriented economies of developing nations.

Development Aid and Goals: The G20 has committed to supporting development efforts through initiatives such as the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and aid programs, with an emphasis on poverty reduction and infrastructure development.

Implications for Developing Countries:

Dr. Anbarasu examined the implications of G20 decisions on developing countries:

Positive Impact: G20 policies can enhance economic growth, trade, and investment opportunities in developing economies, contributing to poverty reduction and development.

Challenges: Some policies may present challenges, such as the potential for increased competition or vulnerability to global economic fluctuations.

Dr. Anbarasu concluded by summarizing the seminar's key takeaways:

- The G20's significance as a global economic forum.
- Its initiatives benefiting developing countries.
- The potential positive and challenging impacts of G20 policies on economies in the developing world.

6. Interactive Discussion and Q&A:

After the presentation, participants engaged in a lively discussion, asking questions related to G20 policies, their implementation challenges, and possible future developments. Dr. Anbarasu responded with depth and clarity, enriching the participants' understanding of the topic.

The presentation successfully provided attendees with a comprehensive understanding of the G20's influence on developing economies, emphasizing the complexity and multifaceted nature of this impact.

7. Vote of Thanks and Conclusion:

The seminar concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks to Dr. V. Anbarasu, participants, and everyone involved in organizing the event. The audience was encouraged to reflect on the insights gained and continue exploring the seminar's theme in their academic pursuits.

Program Outcome:

The seminar achieved its objectives by providing participants with a comprehensive understanding of how the G20 impacts developing countries. Dr. V. Anbarasu's presentation offered a balanced and informed perspective on the complex dynamics of global economic governance. The interactive discussion facilitated critical thinking and a deeper exploration of the topic.

The seminar successfully facilitated an informed discussion about the G20's influence on developing economies. By bringing together academic experts and curious minds, the event contributed to the enrichment of knowledge and the fostering of intellectual engagement. The PG & Research Department of Commerce expressed gratitude to all participants, the esteemed guest, and the organizing team for their contributions to the seminar's success. Through endeavors like these, the department continues to foster a culture of learning and scholarly inquiry.

Feedback

The presentation on the G20's impact was engaging and easy to understand

The interactive discussion session after the presentation was a highlight. Dr. Anbarasu's responses to our questions were insightful and relatable.

Objective of the Program

Poshan maah is known as National Nutrition Month. Poshan means nourishment. Any food is not nourishment. Balanced diet that will boost up the health and growth of humanity is important. Poshan maah will create awareness about the importance of nutrition and promoting better nutrition and health practices. Poshan maah was started in the year 2018 and organised on September of every year. It places the significant necessity of the nourishment of the mothers and newborns. We have gathered here in one such occasion. You, students being the future citizens, should be aware of this essential nourishment and related topics.

Programme Summary

The program was started with prayer. Welcome address was given by Dr.Unika, Head and Associated Professor of Commerce. Lamp was lighted by Director and Secretary - Bro. Dr.Stainslaus, Academic Director - Dr. Fatima Vasanth, Principal – Dr.Geetha Rufus, Vice principal – Dr.Ananda Priya and Dr. Unika, Head. In order to create awareness about nutrition and its uses among students, a collection of food that are essential for strength, nourishment, growth, balanced diet, food pyramid, rainbow diet were displayed. Students were enlightened by those real fruits and vegetables that were colourfully displayed. The event was befittingly completed with the oath taking. Expo was conducted in the OAT hall. All 1st year students were

Purpose: The celebration of Poshan Maah, known as National Nutrition Month, aimed to raise awareness about the crucial significance of proper nutrition in fostering healthy lives and communities.

Poshan Maah: Understanding Nourishment

Poshan Maah, which translates to National Nutrition Month, underscores the fundamental importance of nourishment, emphasizing that not all food constitutes proper nourishment. Instead, it emphasizes the need for a balanced diet to enhance the health and growth of individuals, thereby benefiting humanity as a whole.

Key Points Highlighted:

1. The Essence of Balanced Nutrition: The event stressed that a balanced diet plays a pivotal role in boosting overall health and wellness.
2. Awareness Promotion: Poshan Maah serves as a platform to spread awareness about the criticality of nutrition and encourages better practices for improved health and well-being.
3. Initiation and Timeliness: Commencing in 2018 and observed every September, Poshan Maah has become an annual occurrence aimed at highlighting the significance of nourishment for mothers and newborns.
4. Role of Future Citizens: Addressing the students as the future pillars of society, the event emphasized the importance of understanding and actively engaging with topics related to essential nourishment.

Event Proceedings:

The gathering brought together participants to shed light on the importance of Poshan Maah, with speakers, educators, and experts sharing insights and information regarding nutrition, its impact on health, and the ways in which individuals can adopt better practices for a healthier lifestyle.

Conclusion:

The celebration of Poshan Maah served as a platform to educate and inspire individuals, especially the younger generation, about the critical role nutrition plays in ensuring a healthy society. By highlighting the significance of balanced diets and its impact on the well-being of mothers and newborns, the event aimed to instill a sense of responsibility among attendees to promote and adopt healthier lifestyle choices.

OBJECTIVES

- International Literacy Day is an annual observance held on September 8 to promote literacy and emphasise its crucial role in society. The primary goal of International Literacy Day is to underscore the importance of literacy in people's lives and in broader societal contexts.
- Literacy gives people access to that information. Literacy plays a significant role in reducing gender, race, nationality, and religious inequality that favors one group over another in access to education, property, employment, health care, legal, and civic participation.

ntroduction: Alundur, a vibrant community, has embarked on a journey towards empowerment through education and literacy. With the mission to foster inclusive growth and eliminate societal disparities, an extensive literacy awareness program has been conceptualized.

Goals of the Program:

- Promotion of Literacy: The primary objective is to advocate for the importance of literacy in everyday life and its pivotal role in societal development.

2. Empowering Marginalized Groups: Targeting gender, race, nationality, and religious disparities, the program aims to provide equitable opportunities for education and access to resources.
3. Building a Knowledgeable Society: Encouraging individuals to become lifelong learners, fostering critical thinking, and nurturing a thirst for knowledge.

Program Outline:

1. Awareness Campaign:

- Seminar Series: Organize seminars led by experts to elucidate the significance of literacy, its impact on societal growth, and strategies to improve literacy rates.
- Community Workshops: Engage local leaders, educators, and community members in interactive workshops to discuss practical solutions for promoting literacy within households and communities.

2. Educational Initiatives:

- Adult Literacy Programs: Establish adult literacy classes to cater to individuals who have missed out on formal education, fostering basic reading and writing skills.
- Youth Engagement: Engage youth through innovative literacy programs, encouraging reading clubs, and providing access to educational resources.

3. Collaborative Efforts:

- Partnerships: Forge partnerships with local schools, libraries, NGOs, and government agencies to leverage resources and reach a wider audience.
- Involvement of Stakeholders: Encourage involvement from businesses, local authorities, and influential figures to garner support and resources for the cause.

4. Utilizing Technology:

- Digital Literacy Workshops: Conduct workshops to enhance digital literacy skills, ensuring individuals can navigate the digital world effectively.
- Online Resources: Provide access to online educational platforms and resources to supplement traditional learning methods.

ATR

- Assessment Tools: Develop metrics to monitor the effectiveness of the program, track literacy rates, and evaluate the impact on the community.
- Feedback Mechanisms: Implement feedback mechanisms to gather insights from participants, enabling continuous program improvement.

Conclusion: The literacy awareness program in Alundur is a comprehensive endeavour aimed at creating a more educated and empowered community. By fostering literacy, the program seeks to break barriers, empower individuals, and pave the way for a more equitable and prosperous society.

This program strives not only to impart the ability to read and write but also to instill a sense of empowerment, enabling individuals to actively participate in shaping their future and contributing meaningfully to the community's growth.

Programme Summary

- Introduction to Automation Testing: The workshop started with an explanation of the importance of automation testing in software development and the benefits it offers, such as increased efficiency, accuracy, and faster feedback.
- Manual Testing Fundamentals: Participants were introduced to the fundamentals of manual testing, including test planning, test case design, test execution, and defect reporting. They learned how to create effective test cases and execute them meticulously.
- Understanding Selenium: Participants were introduced to Selenium, an open-source testing tool widely used for automating web applications. They learned about the different components of Selenium, including Selenium WebDriver, Selenium IDE, and Selenium Grid.
- Selenium Overview: Participants were introduced to Selenium, its history, and its role in the software testing ecosystem. They learned about the various Selenium components, including Selenium WebDriver, IDE, Grid, and RC.
- Best Practices and Challenges: The workshop highlighted best practices for effective manual testing and Selenium automation. Common challenges faced during testing projects were also discussed, along with strategies to overcome them.

Outcome

- Participants learned the fundamentals of manual testing.
- Participants were introduced to Selenium, a popular open-source automation testing tool used for web applications.
- They understood the advantages of using Selenium and its different components, such as Selenium WebDriver, Selenium IDE, and Selenium Grid.
- Understood how manual testing and automated testing fit into the software development lifecycle.
- Participants had the opportunity to ask questions and interact with the workshop instructor, allowing them to learn from each other's experiences and challenges.

Programme Summary

The "Building Aptitude Skills" program was designed to provide 3rd-year students with a comprehensive understanding of the key aptitude areas that are frequently evaluated by recruiters. The program included a series of interactive sessions, workshops, and practice exercises to ensure active engagement and skill development. Topics covered ranged from numerical reasoning and verbal ability to logical reasoning and data interpretation.

Workshop Outcome:

- Demonstrate improved problem-solving skills in numerical reasoning.
- Exhibit enhanced verbal communication and comprehension abilities.
- Apply logical reasoning strategies to solve complex problems effectively.
- Interpret and analyze data with precision and accuracy.
- Feel more confident and well-prepared to excel in aptitude-based assessments during placement activities.

Bridge Course

I BCOM CS

Topic: Transition from School to College

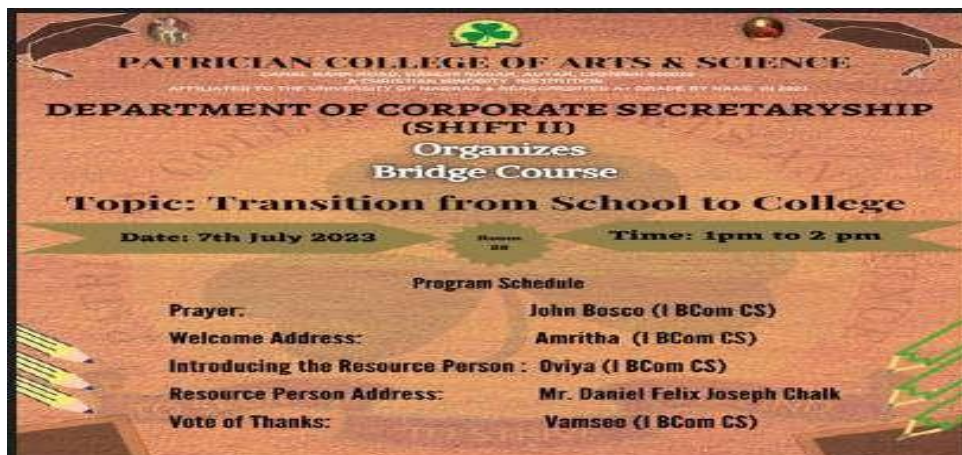

OBJECTIVE :

Completing their school is the first step into adult life for a student, and choosing a career path is never easy for any student. They get confronted with multitudes of possibilities and opportunities, to overcome their fear and to face their challenges. This program was conducted for all the I B.Com CS Students.

I B Com CS Students

PROJECT:

Bridge Course - Transition from School to College (07/07/2023)

LEARNING EXPERIENCE:

This Program inculcated the knowledge of a student's transition from school to college life. This program taught the students to identify their own difficulties in various categories like academic, social, emotional, financial, or relationship problems. The Resource person took the session in a best effective way that the students were enlightened and was determined face their life with a good positive vibes

RESOURCE PERSON:

Mr. Daniel Felix Joseph Chalk
Assistant Professor, Department of Management
IQAC, Coordinator, Patrician college of Arts & Science

Feedback :

Students provided positive feedback for the seminar on the Transition from School to College, expressing appreciation for the insightful guidance and practical tips shared by the speakers. Many found the discussions on academic expectations, time management, and campus resources particularly helpful in navigating the challenges of this pivotal transition. The interactive nature of the seminar facilitated open dialogue, allowing students to address concerns and gain valuable insights from both peers and experienced speakers. Overall, attendees felt more confident and well-equipped to navigate the college landscape, and they expressed gratitude for the timely and relevant information that eased the transition process.

The poster is for a 'Mentor Mentee Programme on Business Model Canvas'. It features the Patrician College of Arts and Science logo at the top left, with text identifying it as a Christian Minority Institution affiliated to the University of Madras, re-accredited 'A+' by NAAC in 2011, and awarded 4 Star with Mentor Status by the Innovation Cell, MoE, Govt. of India. The program is organized by the Patrician Institution's Innovation Council & Department of Corporate Secretaryship in association with Shree Chandraprabhu Jain College, Minjur & St. George's Arts and Science College, Chennai. The Resource Person is Dr. Sunil P. Nanrangrao, International Relations Officer at G H Raisoni College of Engg Nag, and Ex Dean Industry Institute Interact. A red button says 'Click Here to REGISTER'. The date and time are 6th Mar 2024, 11.30 AM - 12.30 PM. A file explorer window is open over the bottom right, showing 'Received Files' and 'Invite (1).pdf'.

Objectives of the FDP: To introduce participants to the fundamentals of Entrepreneurship To train and develop professionals in the area of entrepreneurship, innovation and incubation

About the programme

The main objectives of the workshop were to develop a shared understanding of the importance of Innovation and Entrepreneurship, explore approaches to take ideas from inception to pitch and experience interactive ways of learning about Innovation and Entrepreneurship. Dr Sunil Nagarani was the main resource person of the workshop. The workshop was open to the faculty of the various colleges all over India. In total 400 members participated in the workshop through Hybrid mode .

The key points he described are: He stressed on “What a business model is?” He also explained in detail the ‘9 Building Blocks of Business Model Canvas’. He spoke extensively on the different customer segments and stressed on how to cater to different customer segments. He supported the same with the help of numerous examples. He further added that “different brands define itself in different ways”.

It can be described through 9 building blocks: Customer Segments, Value Propositions, Channels, Customer Relationships, Revenue Streams, Key Resources, Key Activities, Key Partnerships & Cost Structure. Key resources are the primary inputs that a business requires to operate, create value for its customers, and achieve its objectives. These resources can be tangible or intangible, such as human capital, financial assets, physical infrastructure, or intellectual property Business Model Canvas Advantages

- Focused on Key Strategic Elements. •

Is a Quick and Agile Construct. • Creates a Common Reference Point.

- Focused on the Value Proposition.

“Designer business model is much more important than the product”. He also spoke extensively on value propositions. With a participation of around 400 students, the session was concluded by a vote of thanks.

Outcomes of the FDP: The FDP facilitated the participants to understand the concepts of entrepreneurship and its varied dimensions FDP enabled the promotion of the scope of entrepreneurship among faculty and the students about entrepreneurial careers.

Report:

The program started with the divine blessing by the prayer lead by Swetha V III BCA B. Interested final year students from the Department of Computer Applications actively participated in this program . In this session the students were given a brief introduction about the internship program that is available in the field of computer applications. The idea of how to choose and find internship offers were given in detail to the students.

The resource person also helps the students train themselves for interviews by conducting a mock interview session. The students benefited a lot through the mock process and came out with positive feedback requesting for repeated sessions.

Department of Computer Science with Data Science & Mathematics – Industrial Visit

20.	Name of the Programme	:	Experimental Study - Industrial Visit to Tamilnadu Science and Technology Centre (Birla Planetarium), Kotturpuram, Chennai
	Date	:	09/09/2023
	Number of Participants	:	35

Objectives

- Educational Exploration: Learn about astronomy and space science through interactive exhibits and planetarium shows. Gain a deeper understanding of the cosmos, celestial bodies, and the latest developments in space research.
- Science Communication: Enhance your ability to communicate scientific concepts to others, as the center often offers programs and workshops on science communication and outreach.

Invite

About - Tamilnadu Science and Technology Center (Birla Planetarium), Kotturpuram, Chennai:

The Planetarium is considered in the modern world as an Indoor - Universe. The Planetarium has provisions to execute diurnal, annual, latitudinal and precessional motions. The special effect projectors inside the Planetarium recreate some of the most awe-inspiring astronomical phenomena on the specially perforated aluminum inner dome. Multi-dimensional activities and multimedia projection arrangements which have been incorporated inside the sky theater make the programme further lively and excited one. The Planetarium, which is fully computerized, can seat 236 persons at a time.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- To establish Science and Technology Centres in Tamilnadu
- To popularize Science and Technology among the general public in the urban and rural areas.
- To design, develop and fabricate Science and Technology exhibits, prototype demonstration equipments and scientific teaching aids for furtherance of Science Education.
- To portray the growth of Science and Technology and their applications to improve the human environment and living.
- To supplement the Formal Science Education given in the Schools and Colleges.
- To render assistance to universities, technical institutions, schools and colleges in planning science centres and in training personnel for museum profession.
- To train teachers in the art and craft of improving teaching aids for science instruction with a view to improving the quality of Science Education in the State.
- To collect, restore and preserve important historical objects which represent landmarks in the development of Science and Technology.

Report

As part of Experimental Study and learning, the first and second year students of the Department of C.Sc with Data Science and Mathematics were taken to Birla Planetarium, Kotturpuram on 09-09-2023 from 10 am - 2 pm to enhance their understanding and observations on various research developments in science and technology. Planetarium Show: The highlight of our visit was the captivating planetarium show, which transported them into the vast cosmos. The state-of-the-art technology used in the show allowed us to explore celestial bodies, galaxies, and the mysteries of the universe. The visual and auditory experience left a lasting impression on everyone present. Interactive Exhibits: The Science and Technology Center features interactive exhibits that enable visitors to understand complex scientific concepts in an engaging manner. These exhibits covered a wide range of topics, from physics and biology to robotics and environmental science. Students were encouraged to interact with the displays, enhancing their understanding of scientific principles. Our visit to the Tamil Nadu Science and Technology Center left a significant impact on both students and faculty.

Objectives

The objective of the "Introduction to Python" program is to provide students with a foundational understanding of the Python programming language. Through this program, students will learn the basic syntax, data structures, and control flow constructs of Python. The aim is to equip students with the necessary skills to start developing simple programs and to lay the groundwork for more advanced Python programming concepts in the future.

No of Beneficiaries: 26

Programme Summary

The "Introduction to Python" program is designed to be a peer-to-peer experiential learning initiative led by a student from III BSC CS. The program seeks to foster a collaborative learning environment where II Year students can learn from each other's experiences and perspectives. The student instructor will guide their classmates through various Python concepts using interactive lessons, exercises, and hands-on projects.

Outcome

- Students had a solid understanding of Python syntax and semantics, including indentation-based block structure, dynamic typing, and object-oriented principles.
- Through the peer-to-peer learning approach, students developed collaborative skills by actively engaging in discussions, sharing knowledge, and providing constructive feedback to their peers.
- Students felt confident in their ability to continue learning Python independently and applying their knowledge to more advanced programming tasks.

The International Multidisciplinary Conference (Hybrid Mode) on “Emerging Trends in Humanities in the New Revolutionary Era- Industry 5.0” was organized by the Department of Corporate Secretaryship with CA and Professional Accounting of Kongu Arts and Science College (Autonomous) in collaboration with Department of Corporate Secretaryship and Accounting and Finance of Patrician College of Arts and Science on 26th September, 2023.

The International conference was held by various reputed dignitaries from around the globe, all specializing in fields of business, artificial intelligence, sustainability development, resilience, reinvention, entrepreneurship, economy, globalization, humanities, etc. The conference provided the audience with a very holistic approach to the evolution of technology and industry and how the same has impacted the world throughout and its generations to come. Thereby teaching the youth on how to ethically and responsibly make use of the resources that will lead us further into a technologically advanced future.

The conference was conducted from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm divided into 4 technical sessions including a tea break and lunch break.

The Hybrid mode proved to be an excellent example on how we can utilize our technological resources to defeat the factors of distance, space and time. The collaboration between the two colleges separated by a distance of 450kms did not stop them from bringing forth a well organized international conference.

INAUGURATION AND TECHNICAL SESSION 1

The International Conference began with its inauguration which was led by Dr. K.K.A Alaguappan, Head of Department of Corporate Secretaryship with CA and Professional Accounting of Kongu Arts and Science College, Erode.

Soon after which, Chief Guest, Professor. Dr. Firdouse Rahman Khan of SIT Abdul Haris College of Administrative Sciences, Makassar, Indonesia was welcomed by the Director and Secretary, Bro. Dr. A. Stanislaus, Patrician College of Arts and Science by honoring the chief guest with a shawl.

Vice Principal, Dr. B. Anandapriya of Patrician College of Arts and Science handed over a token of appreciation to the chief guest.

6.5 Internal Quality Assurance

Proceeding the welcoming of the Chief Guest, Dr. Fathima Vasanth, Academic Director, Patrician College of Arts and Science rendered the welcome address, convincing the gathering that the industrial revolution is crucial and vital to our survival and how we can grasp knowledge from the same to help make the world a better a place.

Thereafter, Dr. H. Vasudevan, Principal of Kongu Arts and Science college and Dr. Arokiamary Geetha Doss, Principal of Patrician College of Arts and Science felicitated the gathering.

TECHNICAL SESSION 1

Before the session could commence, Dr. S. Muthukumaravel, H.O.D, Department of Corporate Secretaryship, Patrician College of Arts and Science introduced the guest speaker, Professor Dr. Firdous Rahman Khan, STI Abdul Haris College of Administrative Sciences, Makassar, Indonesia.

Technical session 1 was on the topic of New Business Opportunities in the Digital Age. Professor Dr. Firdous Rahman Khan, guest speaker for the same saw to it that he first educated the gathering on the history of the industrial revolution and its incredible progress throughout the century, how it influenced the generations, their standard of living, work culture, economic development, etc. Finally leading us to the very fundamental of the topic, new business opportunities in the Digital age. Now that humanity has reached so far in technological advancements, where technology is at that stage of nearly replacing all forms of labour and work, Professor Dr. Firdous Rahman Khan convinced and gave the new generations hope that there are plenty of opportunities waiting for us to grab them. His insightful knowledge on how we can manipulate the system, take control and most importantly have the courage to take the first step or take the initiative which allowed our minds to feel safe and comfortable.

TECHNICAL SESSION 2

Technical session 2 was followed by technical session 1 at 11:30 A.M. The guest speaker, Professor. Ramanathan Karuppiah, an International Director, Financial Crime Compliance, Australia Griffith University and Director of Islamic Bank, Australia. Guest speaker, unfortunately could not be present at the conference in physical form. However, Sir did take the time to log into the conference via virtual mode and provide us with exceptional and invaluable information on the topic, Artificial Intelligence and Sustainability Development.

This challenging topic on how to sustain ourselves with the everchanging and ever progressive artificial intelligence could not be explained any better than Professor. Ramanathan Karuppiah. Sir organized the allotted time provided to him with care, keeping in mind the major topics and subjects to be covered.

The session was very well articulated as Professor Ramanathan Karuppiah, explained how we can live as one with Artificial Intelligence without having to constantly live in the fear of being replaced. Artificial Intelligence has its dangerous effects if not dealt with precautiously, hence sir taught us how to ethically and morally make use of the same. All this took place while sir was thousands of miles apart from us in another continent (Australia), thereby proving his lecture true that we can live, connect and co-exist along with Artificial Intelligence.

TECHNICAL SESSION 3

This session was conducted live at the Kongu Arts and Science College, Erode. The guest speaker, Dr. Arun Balakrishnan, Assistant Professor, Christ University, Kerala spoke on the topic Research and Economic Impact in Industry 5.0.

The session was a very fulfilling one with Sir explaining on how the new and upcoming industrial revolution would impact its way through our economy. Sir first explained how the previous industrial revolutions impacted the corresponding economies and how all that development led us to the economies we currently live in due to constant upgrades and innovations.

With every industrial or technological revolution there is a very intricate connection that takes place with the economy. It affects industries, companies, countries, people, livelihood, jobs, standard of living, environment etc. It creates place for creativity, innovation and imagination allowing human beings to work together and collaborate their ideas and plans to help benefit the entire world altogether. Through this we can change the world and its economy for a better tomorrow.

TECHNICAL SESSION 4

The last session for the day ended with an astounding speech from guest speaker, Balaji Sadagopan, the Co- Founder and COO at Chai Kings. Mr. Balaji was present with us at the Patrician College of Arts and Science, engaging the crowd with his inspiring story of success and passion in entrepreneurship.

The topic for the session was on Resilience and Reinvention (Hardships and Challenges). Mr. Balaji Sadagopan kept us on our toes, making us imagine the hardships he initially faced while starting his new business venture. Sir provided us with his own personal techniques on tackling difficulties related to business, marketing and consistency. Lot of advice, encouragement and motivation filled the student crowd making the day end in a state of bliss.

VALEDICTION

Last but not the least The International Conference came to an end by bidding farewell to all our guest speakers, participants and audience. The college management of both colleges awarded certificates and prizes to the participants and student gathering. Thereby thanking them for their active participation, undivided attention and co-operation throughout. Thanking the people who have worked tirelessly behind the scenes goes without saying, without their presence and silent dedicated work none of the above would have taken place.

Course Outcome:

The International Conference provided an opportunity to research community in sharing their knowledge and research expertise and students have gained knowledge on various research areas and opportunities available to them in the current scenario.

Programme Summary

This workshop covered fundamental concepts of machine learning, demonstrates how to integrate machine learning models into web applications. Throughout the workshop, participants gained hands-on experience working with popular machine learning frameworks and tools, learned how to preprocess and manage data, implement machine learning models, and deploy these models effectively within web environments. Real-world examples and case studies are presented to showcase the diverse applications of machine learning in web development, such as recommendation systems, natural language processing, image recognition, and more.

Workshop Outcome:

- Participants grasped fundamental concepts of machine learning, including supervised and unsupervised learning
- Participants will have the ability to integrate machine learning models into web applications.
- Participants will be equipped with the skills to make data-driven decisions in web development. They will learn how to collect and analyze user data, derive insights, and use these insights to optimize web experiences and achieve specific business goals.

6.5 Internal Quality Assurance

Change is constant Changes outside and inside the organization. Anticipatory change - we are prepared Unanticipated change - unable to foresee and predict, unable to plan and prepare, lot of external factors, didn't have the capacity and capability to handle it.. Conclave is to prepare you for all such changes Five aspects to prepare

- ❖ Focus on the module of the course and understanding and participation.
- ❖ Listening as audience also plays a part. Develop both domain knowledge and soft skills.
- ❖ Internship opportunities can play a big role in understanding the business as an entire body instead of just HR. Acquire business acumen through internship and projects.

Thirst for digital upgradation skills must be there.. understand in all efforts what the technical side will be adaptable to change in digital space, how do you leverage to your advantage. You must understand value systems and walk the talk. Acquire values People function is the main focus of HR. Check policies in place. The organization culture. leadership in organization. Focus on current and prepare for future.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Mr. T.A Mathew Gunaseelan Vice President HR Indo National Ltd.

OBJECTIVE OF PROGRAM

The objectives of a program on an HR conclave could vary depending on the specific goals and focus of the event. However, some common objectives of such a program might include to provide a platform for HR professionals to share knowledge, insights, and best practices in the field of human resources. To promote thought leadership in HR, highlighting emerging trends, research, and ideas that can shape the future of the profession.

Bro. Dr.A. Stanislaus, Director and Secretary ,Heartfully Welcome & Address The Key Note Speaker T.A Mathew Gunaseelan Vice President HR Indo National Ltd.

Dr. Arokiamary Geetha Doss, Principal Honoured Our Key Note Speaker Mr. T.A Mathew Gunaseelan , Vice President HR Indo National Ltd.

The Key Note Speaker, Started addressing the student to make the session more valuable and to gain knowledge, to make their profession in most valuable manner. The address is typically designed to inspire, educate, and engage the audience. The speaker introduces the main theme or topic of their address, highlighting its relevance and importance to the audience. The keynote speaker's address is intended to set the tone for the HR conclave, inspire the audience, and provide valuable insights and perspectives that attendees can apply in their own professional practice. He shared some experiences about the Shaping the future - are we capable of that?

I say no to accepting the status quo, recognizing that it is important to change the future. I take responsibility and say 'I' instead of 'we,' understanding that unless I shape myself, I can't shape the future.

When someone cannot adapt, they are aging; shape yourself by adapting. Like Nokia, once a world leader, which failed to adapt to consumer needs, resulting in a loss of market share to 0% and the subsequent rise of Samsung. Just as the eaglet among chickens became like one, choosing comfort over growth until questioned by a monk. Upon attempting to fly from a high place, the eagle fell and was wounded but with perseverance, it eventually learned to fly again. Inspired by the monk's motivation, the eagle flew from a mountain and never returned, symbolizing the importance of finding your 'why.' Just as the eaglet learned from its environment among chickens, we live in a fast-food world with a shorter attention span, where knowledge is abundant but experiential sharing is rare. To succeed, prepare for the future by adapting and seeking experiential knowledge, a principle that the NIPM student chapter embodies and promotes for your benefit.

Mr. Daniel Chalke, Asst. Prof., Dept. of Management , address the student to interact with panelist to gain knowledge and new professional to build career.

6.5 Internal Quality Assurance

The panelist discussion should be informative, engaging, and aligned with the objectives of the student inauguration, providing valuable insights and inspiration to the audience.

Panelists discuss their own experiences related to the theme, share insights and advice, and highlight the importance of the event's objectives. It is a formal or semi-formal discussion in which a group of experts or knowledgeable individuals discuss a specific topic in front of an audience. The panelists share their insights, experiences, and perspectives on the topic, often providing diverse viewpoints. A moderator typically guides the discussion, ensuring that each panelist has the opportunity to speak and that the conversation stays on track. Panel discussions are commonly used in academic, professional, and public settings to explore complex issues, share information, and engage with audiences.

Mr. Issac Adaikaladoss General Manager –HR Tata Consultancy Services

Employers expect high levels of professionalism, including a strong work ethic, practical skills, and a commitment to confidentiality. It's important for students transitioning to corporate roles to understand the importance of maintaining these standards, especially in terms of technology use, such as not installing personal apps on company devices and not using personal information once access to corporate apps is granted. Additionally, bridging the reverse technological gap is crucial, as employees should use technology primarily for work purposes rather than excessive social media use.

Mr. Al Arafat Sherfuddeen President of Content The Logical Indian

He started about how to build a career and to stand out and succeed after college, it's crucial to have clarity on your goals, explore study opportunities beyond traditional paths, and bridge the gap between your ambitions and the available opportunities. Effective communication, both in terms of knowledge and clarity of expression, is key, as is active participation in learning and leadership activities, including extracurriculars. In a competitive job market, where there are often more people than available positions, active participation and leadership can help you become the chosen candidate.

Mr. M.N. Pravin Manager – Corporate HR Brakes India Pvt. Ltd., Chennai.

Understanding your personal profile, including your abilities, self-management skills, and technical abilities, is crucial. According to the World Economic Forum's Future of Jobs Report 2023, the top four skills needed for the future are resilience, self-awareness, lifelong learning, and agility. It's important to assess your performance against your potential, adhere to organizational values, and strive for continuous improvement in both soft and technical skills, as well as industry-specific skills.

Mr. Issac Adaikaladoss General Manager –HR Tata Consultancy Services, He explain to be aware and to prepare for the corporate world, gaining experience through internships, part-time jobs, and projects is essential. As a student, it's important to understand that the protected environment of academia is different from the realities of corporate life, where ambition must align with expectations. Corporate environments can be unforgiving, making it crucial to manage your temperament, as mistakes can have significant consequences. While students have more room for error, gaining exposure to situations with less margin for error, such as through part-time work or projects, is invaluable.

Mr. Al Arafat Sherfuddeen President of Content The Logical Indian ,He explain about punctuality and time management ,punctuality is of utmost importance, and establishing yourself as a lifelong learner is key. Start by putting simple tech skills into practice, using them to communicate your ideas effectively through tangible presentations, and carve out your own niche

Mr. M.N. Pravin Manager – Corporate HR Brakes India Pvt. Ltd., Chennai. He explain to grow personally and professionally, it's important to accept feedback and engage in self-assessment. Remember, the only person who can hinder your growth is yourself. Consider reducing screen time and switching focus from social media to knowledge enhancement apps, and prioritize personal interactions over online communication. Additionally, having an older life mentor and engaging in reverse mentoring with younger individuals can be invaluable in your development.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT TRAINING PROGRAMME (FDTPs) ATTENDED - 35*WORKSHOPS ATTENDED – 34*WEBINARS & SEMINARS ATTENDED – 23*REPORT ABOUT THE EVENT*Objective :

The purpose of conducting such patent programme is to encourage our students community in innovation by granting inventors a patent for their inventions. The filing procedure of patents were taken and taught to the students. Intellectual Property Rights are legal rights, which result from intellectual activity in industrial, scientific, literary & artistic fields. These rights are Safeguard creators and other producers of intellectual goods & services by granting them certain time-limited rights to control their use. Protected IP rights like other property can be a matter of trade, which can be owned, sold or bought. These are intangible and non exhausted consumption

Introduction

The phrase “Knowledge-based economy” describes the new economic environment in which the generation and management of knowledge play a predominant part in wealth creation, as compared with the traditional factors of production, namely land, labour and capital. Intellectual property (IP) is a method for legally protecting this knowledge or intellectual activity. The system of Intellectual Property (IP) rights creates a mechanism to resolve the “Appropriability” problem, by creating property rights over knowledge. At the SMEs level, IP has been a significant source of competitive advantage of business enterprises and a major driver of their competitive strategies.

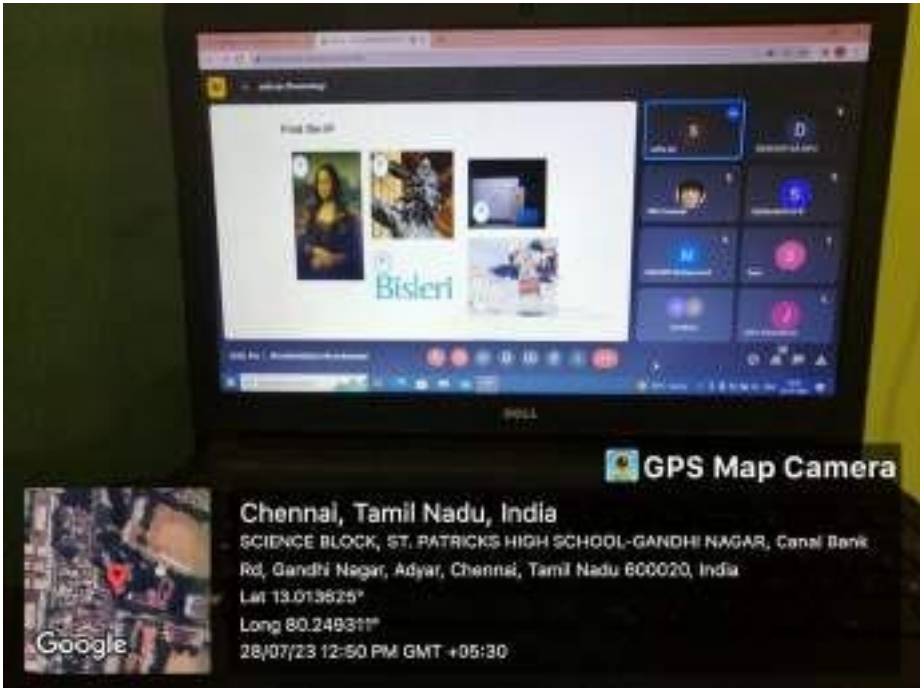

Outcome:

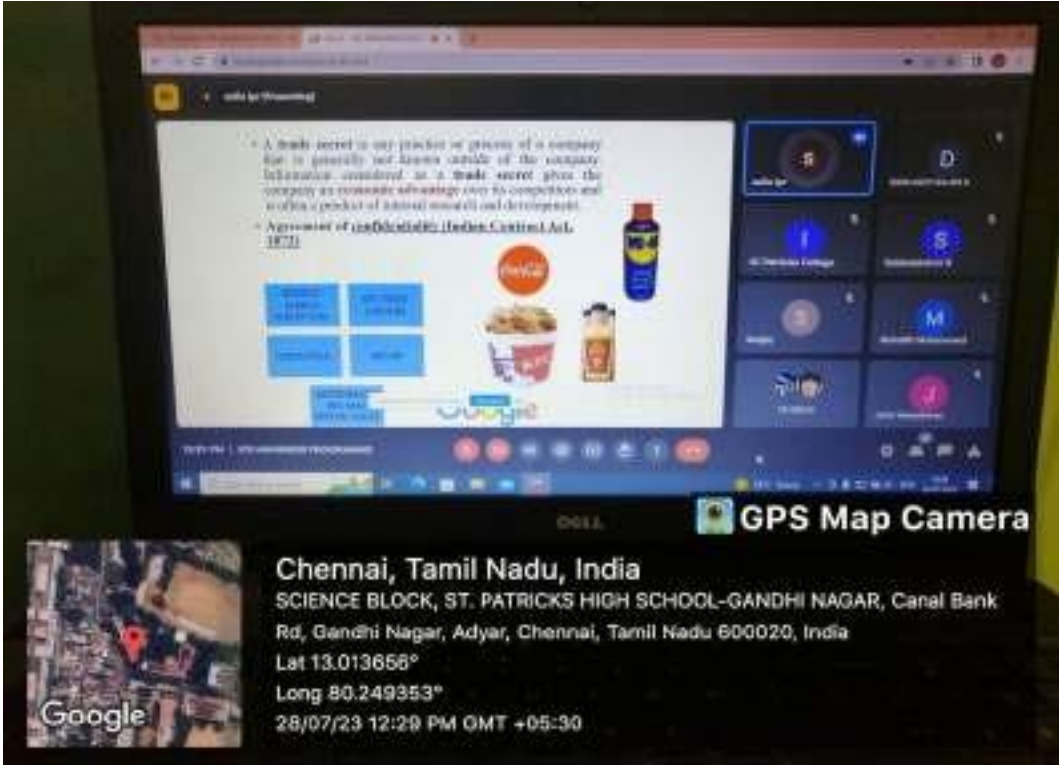

Awareness of IPR benefits to the MSMEs is mainly on two fronts. Firstly, how they can protect their creations i.e. to protect their own intellectual property rights and secondly, how they can avoid violating intellectual property rights of others. Furthermore, this increased awareness will encourage MSMEs to make better use of IPR system and make it an integral part of their business strategy. The Ministry intends to help MSMEs to understand IPR from business perspective as well as exposes the IPR needs of the MSMEs to policy makers through awareness and capacity building programme.

Programme Summary

- Overview of machine learning concepts and types (supervised, unsupervised, reinforcement learning).
- Introduction to Python programming for data manipulation and analysis using libraries like NumPy and Pandas.
- Understanding classification algorithms (Logistic Regression, Decision Trees, Random Forests).
- Introduction to neural networks and deep learning using TensorFlow and Keras.

Outcome

- Increased understanding of machine learning concepts and algorithms among participants.
- Enhanced proficiency in Python programming and its libraries for data analysis and machine learning.
- Improved ability to solve real-world problems using machine learning techniques.

NO. OF BENEFICIARIES

94 students from I & III B.Sc. Psychology and I & II M.Sc. Applied Psychology

PROFILE OF RESOURCE PERSON

Ms. Aishwarya Ejoumale is a certified counsellor and media psychologist from Chennai. She completed my undergraduate and master's degree in Psychology after which she moved to the UK for further studies in a relatively new field called 'Media Psychology' where she studied how media influences the human mind and behaviour and how to ensure digital well-being. She studied a postgraduate diploma in Human Resource management as well. She began working part-time/interning in various clinics and hospitals alongside other psychologists and psychiatrists.

SUMMARY OF THE PROGRAM

A special lecture on 'Exploring Media Psychology' was conducted by the Department of Psychology on 16th February 2024 between 11:30 AM and 1 PM in Delany Hall, E Block of the college. Br. Dr. A. Stanislaus, Director and Secretary of the college, Mrs. Prabalya T, Head of the Department, Ms. Mary Theresa K, Assistant Professor and the coordinator of the special lecture along with the resource person were the dignitaries of the program. A total of 94 students from I & III B.Sc. and I & II M.Sc. of the department attended this lecture. Ms. Aishwarya Ejoumale, Counseling & Media Psychologist and Founder of Wonderhuman Psychological Services graced the occasion and rendered the lecture as the speaker of the day. The program began with a prayer by the student Ms. Divya R, I B.Sc. Psychology continued with a Welcome Speech by Mrs. Judy C Karol, Assistant Professor. The resource person was introduced by Ms.

Mary Theresa, Assistant Professor and Br. Dr. A. Stanislaus was invited to honour the resource person and to deliver the felicitation address.

Following his inclining talk, Ms. Aishwarya took forward her lecture with her Dissertation discussion on the topic of Media Representation of Women, and following that she took the audience on a tour of Media Psychology. Her humorous and insightful lecture and the captivating presentation kept the audience at the end of their seats throughout the program. Students were allowed to ask their doubts and questions regarding the lecture and the field after the resource person concluded her talk. Students curiously delivered their intriguing questions to the speaker and the speaker responded to every question enthusiastically. The lecture was concluded with a Vote of thanks rendered by Ms. Rohini T, Assistant Professor. Ms. Nivedha R, a student from II M.Sc. Applied Psychology.

Motivational Talk on Entrepreneurship

Objective:

The primary objective of the Motivational Talk on Entrepreneurship organized by the Patrician Institution's Innovation Council in association with the Department of Computer Science - Shift I was to inspire and educate students and professionals about the essential aspects of entrepreneurship. The event aimed to provide insights into the entrepreneurial journey, share success stories, and motivate attendees to pursue their entrepreneurial aspirations.

Invite

Report:

The event took place on Tuesday, 24th January 2024, at the Patrician Institution. It began with a warm welcome and introduction by the organizers, highlighting the significance of fostering an entrepreneurial mindset in today's dynamic world. The keynote speaker, a seasoned entrepreneur with notable achievements, delivered an engaging talk that covered various aspects of entrepreneurship. Sharing the personal experiences, challenges faced, and lessons learned throughout their entrepreneurial journey. They emphasized the importance of creativity, resilience, and adaptability in the face of challenges. The audience had the opportunity to interact with the speaker during a Q&A session, where insightful questions were posed, providing a platform for further discussion and learning.

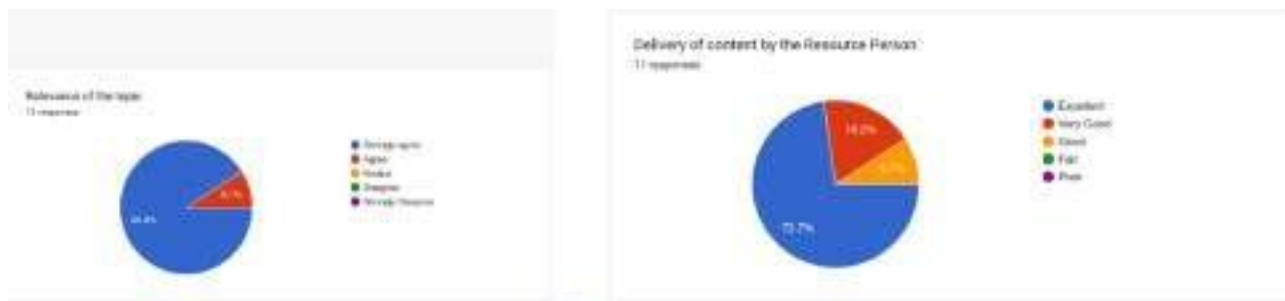

The event also featured a networking session, allowing attendees to connect with like-minded individuals and professionals in the field. This provided a valuable opportunity for participants to expand their network, share ideas, and potentially collaborate on future entrepreneurial ventures.

Program Outcome:

The Motivational Talk on Entrepreneurship achieved its intended outcomes. Participants gained a deeper understanding of the entrepreneurial landscape, drawing inspiration from real-world experiences shared by the keynote speaker. The event fostered a sense of motivation and empowerment among attendees, encouraging them to explore and pursue entrepreneurial opportunities. The networking session facilitated meaningful connections and discussions, creating a supportive community for aspiring entrepreneurs within the Patrician Institution. The event contributed to building a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship, aligning with the institution's commitment to preparing students for success in a rapidly evolving professional environment.

The Motivational Talk on Entrepreneurship proved to be a successful and enriching event, leaving a positive impact on the attendees and contributing to the promotion of entrepreneurial spirit within the academic community.

About the Professional Development Programme (PDP)

The Professional Development Programme (PDP) for faculty offers specialized training in four key areas. Firstly, it covers Gen AI Tools in Education, focusing on integrating emerging AI technologies into teaching practices. Secondly, it enhances Teaching Pedagogy by introducing innovative strategies for dynamic learning experiences. The programme also includes modules on Best Practices for Research Writing and Data Analysis, providing faculty members with essential skills for conducting and disseminating research effectively. Lastly, it offers tips and strategies to crack the National Eligibility Test (NET), aiding faculty members in achieving professional certification. Through these modules, the PDP equips faculty members with the knowledge and skills needed to excel in their teaching, research, and professional development pursuits.

Key Highlights

AI tools offer a wide range of capabilities that enhance productivity, decision-making, and innovation across various domains. Integrating research writing practices, individuals' learning experiences, enhances their academic and professional skills, and fosters the intellectual growth and development. Individuals can optimize their learning experiences, maximize their potential for growth and development, and achieve their personal and professional goals more effectively. Effective preparation for Cracking NET maximizes the chances of success, and achieve academic and career goals.

5. M.Pandiyan, Assistant Professor, SRM Institute of Science and Technology, Kattankulathur, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, India

Programme Summary

Day 1: Integrated Gen AI Tools in Education

- Participants were introduced to AI in education, understanding its potential to enhance teaching and learning.
- Workshops allowed participants to explore various AI tools and platforms tailored for educational purposes.
- Application sessions focused on integrating AI technologies into lesson planning and instructional design to optimize student engagement and learning outcomes.

Day 2: Enhanced Teaching Pedagogy

- Innovative pedagogical approaches, such as active learning strategies, flipped classroom models, and project-based learning, were explored.
- Participants learned techniques for creating inclusive learning environments, addressing diverse student needs, and fostering equity in the classroom.
- Interactive sessions involved collaborative discussions and case studies to apply pedagogical concepts in real-world teaching scenarios.

Day 3: Best Practices for Research Writing and Data Analysis

- Participants gained an overview of research methodology, including problem formulation, literature review, and hypothesis development.
- Essential academic writing skills were covered, including structuring research papers, citing sources, and adhering to publication standards.
- Workshops on data analysis introduced statistical analysis techniques and software tools for data interpretation and visualization.

Day 4: Strategies for Cracking the National Eligibility Test (NET)

- The NET examination format, syllabus coverage, and scoring criteria were reviewed.
- Effective study techniques, time management strategies, and exam preparation tips were provided.
- Mock tests and practice sessions simulated the exam environment to assess readiness and identify areas for improvement.

Day 5: Professional Development and Reflection

- Participants had opportunities for reflection and received feedback from peers and facilitators.
- They identified professional development goals and drafted action plans to implement newfound knowledge and skills.
- The program concluded with a closing ceremony, celebrating achievements and acknowledging the commitment to lifelong learning and continuous improvement.

Outcome

- Enhanced Awareness and Proficiency in AI Tools: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the potential of AI in education and developed proficiency in integrating AI technologies into their teaching practices.
- Advanced Teaching Pedagogy: Faculty members acquired innovative pedagogical approaches and instructional strategies, enabling them to create dynamic and inclusive learning environments that promote active learning and critical thinking among students.
- Improved Research Writing and Data Analysis Skills: Participants developed essential skills in conducting academic research, writing research papers, and analyzing data effectively. They are now better equipped to produce high-quality research output and contribute to knowledge dissemination in their respective fields.
- Preparation for the National Eligibility Test (NET): Faculty members received comprehensive guidance and resources to prepare for the NET examination. They gained confidence and proficiency in test-taking strategies, enabling them to perform well and achieve professional certification.
- Empowered Professional Growth: The program empowered participants to take ownership of their professional development journey. They identified areas for improvement, set goals for continuous learning and growth, and are now better positioned to excel in their teaching, research, and professional endeavors.

Programme Summary

The program centred on the concept of students learning from their classmates, fostering a dynamic and interactive learning environment.

- Introduction to Web Design: Participants was introduced to the basic principles of web design, including layout, color theory, typography, and user experience.
- HTML and CSS Fundamentals: Students learnt the foundational aspects of HTML (Hypertext Markup Language) and CSS (Cascading Style Sheets), essential for structuring and styling web pages.
- Interactive Elements: Participants explored how to incorporate interactive elements, such as buttons, forms, and navigation menus, to enhance user engagement.
- Responsive Design: The class covered the importance of responsive design and teach students how to create websites that adapt to different screen sizes and devices.

Outcome

Peer-to-peer experiential learning in "Web Design" allowed students to learn from classmate with expertise in the subject. This approach promotes skill development, teamwork, practical application, and creativity. It boosts confidence, encourages feedback, and fosters a lifelong learning mindset. Ultimately, it enhances the learning experience and helps students build an impressive portfolio.

Programme Summary

The hands-on training on "PHP Programming" aimed at equipping participants with practical skills in PHP development. This training covered essential topics including

- PHP syntax
- Variables
- data types
- control structures
- functions
- arrays
- file handling
- web application development using PHP.

Participants engaged in a practical learning environment where they wrote PHP code, debug and troubleshoot errors, and build interactive web applications.

Outcome

- Gain proficiency in PHP programming language and its core concepts.
- Understand the fundamentals of web development using PHP, including server-side scripting and dynamic content generation.
- Master the art of handling form data, session management, and user authentication in PHP.
- Enhance problem-solving abilities through hands-on exercises and coding challenges in PHP.
- Explore advanced topics in PHP, including object-oriented programming, error handling, and security practices.

Objective:

The objective of this program was to give an idea about the internship activity to the final year students. To help the students understand the importance of joining internship program which would be of great benefit to their career growth.

Resource Person:

Mr. Rufus Sooriya Kumar,
Placement Trainer,

Report:

The program started with the divine blessing by the prayer lead by Swetha V III BCA B. Interested final year students from the Department of Computer Applications actively participated in this program . In this session the students were given a brief introduction about the internship program that is available in the field of computer applications. The idea of how to choose and find internship offers were given in detail to the students.

The resource person also helps the students train themselves for interviews by conducting a mock interview session. The students were benefited a lot through the mock process and came out with positive feedback requesting for repeated session.

REPORT OF THE PROGRAMME

On 19th January 2024, "Role of Psychologist in Defence and Psychodiagnostic" was conducted with the resource person Dr. V. Chandramohan. The program started after a short lunch break.

The presentation and lecture of session 2 was on Psychodiagnostic given by Dr. V. Chandramohan. The session started with a brief explanation on what the topic actually was and the fundamentals on it. He also spoke a lot about his life experience to enrich the students with real-life examples relating to the topic to keep them more interested. He then, spoke about the role of Clinical Psychologists, and different testing methods given by psychologists. He briefly explained the different methods to the students as well. He spoke about different Psychodiagnostic tools relating to Anxiety, Stress, Personality, and Clinical tests of Personality. He asked questions in between the session to keep the audience interested and interactive.

The program ended with an interactive session between the Resource Person and the students followed by a vote of thanks from Dr. A. Josephine Lucy, Asst. Prof. Dept of Psychology.

Programme Summary

Day 1: Introduction to Python Programming

- Overview of Python and its applications
- Setting up Python environment (interpreter, IDEs)
- Basic syntax, data types, and variables
- Control structures (loops, conditionals)
- Functions and modules

Day 2: Data Structures and File Handling

- Lists, tuples, dictionaries, sets
- String manipulation
- File I/O operations
- Exception handling

Day 3: Object-Oriented Programming (OOP) in Python

- Introduction to OOP concepts
- Classes and objects
- Inheritance, polymorphism, encapsulation
- Working with modules and packages

Day 4: Introduction to Pygame (Part 1)

- What is Pygame and its applications
- Setting up Pygame environment
- Creating a basic game window
- Handling user input (keyboard, mouse)

Day 5: Advanced Pygame (Part 2)

- Sprites and animation
- Collision detection and handling
- Adding sound and music
- Game loop and states
- Deployment and distribution of Pygame applications

Workshop Outcome:

By the end of this workshop, participants should be able to:

- Demonstrate a solid understanding of Python programming fundamentals.
- Create basic to moderately complex Python applications.
- Develop 2D games using the Pygame library.
- Understand game development principles including user input, collision detection, and game loops.

PROFILE OF THE RESOURCE PERSON

Haripriya Madhavan is currently working with Anyo, a Chennai-based wellness tech start-up, is a content and communications professional with 12+ years' experience in media content production and brand solutions. Haripriya holds an Integrated Post-Graduate degree in Media Studies from Anna University Chennai.

Sensing a passion for radio and social impact, she started working with her college campus community radio Anna FM as a student. This led her to work with organizations including BBC World Service, British Council, Big FM and The Hindu. She was awarded the National Youth Award for community engagement by the Ministry of Sports and Youth Affairs, Government of India in 2010, among 25 other youngsters selected from the country.

Haripriya Madhavan has been practicing the art of mandalas for the past 5+ years, using it as a tool to weave her own life story using creative expression. She believes that art is an effective medium to engage with our mind positively.

PROGRAM SUMMARY

The seminar started with the invocation of prayer. It was followed by welcoming the students, faculty members and resource person of the seminar. A brief introduction of the resource person of the seminar was given. The session was then handed over to the resource person Ms. Haripriya

Madhavan. The resource person started the session with an ice breaker. She explained about understanding everyone's creative space and ways to explore one's inner identity. She iterated on the importance of documenting, expressing, communicating, visualizing and how to utilize these for maintaining one's mental health properly. She spoke about using art as a tool for engaging with our mental health and how one can use their creative channel as a tool to express oneself about what is inside of everyone as an outlet. She also spoke about the art of Mandala and how it can help an individual in maintaining mental peace. The session ended with an interactive question and answer where students actively engaged with the resource person. The session was formally ended with the rendering of the vote of thanks.

OUTCOME

The students understood the basic meaning of Mental Health and also learnt the small ways to achieve the same in their daily lives.

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

The School of Media Studies, Patrician College of Arts and Science organized 'Women in Media Conclave 2024' on the 6th March, 2024 to commemorate the International Women's Day 2024. Strong and successful Women in Media were invited as the resource persons for the conclave including Ms. Shruthi Nallappa, Producer, Pramod Films, Ms. Kavitha Jaubin, VP, Ahaa Tamil, Ms. Ravootha H K, Founder, Media Masons, Ms. Pramila Devaraj, Dubbing Artist and Ms. Sulabha, Life Coach and Radio Jockey. The conclave commenced with the prayer followed by Lighting of the Lamp by the Management Officials and Resource Persons. The conclave was an inter-collegiate event with student participation from various colleges in the city. Ms. Rani Preethi M, Assistant Professor, School of Media Studies welcomed the gathering and it was followed by the Felicitation Address by Dr. Arokiamary Geetha Doss, Principal, Patrician College of Arts and Science. The much awaited part of the Conclave commenced with a moderator giving away the opening remarks on the title 'Women in Media'. All the resource persons actively participated in the conclave by citing their opinions, views and experiences working in the media. Towards the end of the programme, the students from the various colleges actively participated by interacting with the resource persons and clarifying their doubts. The conclave was highly interactive and interesting.

With an intent to honor women who actively work in community a special and a surprising award show was scheduled as part of the conclave. The award titled to be Inspiring Women, 2024. The following women were honored:

1. Ms. Premavathi, Support Staff, Patrician College of Arts and Science
2. Ms. Jeeva Subramanian, Actress, Tamil Film Industry
3. Ms. Rosy Sujatha, COO, United Way (Not for Profit Organization)
4. Ms. Vasanthi, Alumni Parent, Department of Visual Communication
5. Ms. Lakshmi Mani, Zomato Delivery Partner

The award show was followed by the valediction where the students and faculty members of various colleges were given a certificate of Participation. The event formally ended with the proposal of the vote of thanks by Ms. Pooja, Assistant Professor, School of Media Studies, Patrician College of Arts and Science.

The media partner for the conclave was Aval Glitz - The Women Based YouTube Channel of India Glitz and was sponsored by Jeyachandran Textiles. The programme was broadcast in the Aval Glitz YouTube Channel on the 8th March, 2024.

Report on Carbon Accounting and Trading

Objective

The objective of organizing a seminar on Carbon Accounting and Trading is to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the principles, methodologies, and significance of carbon accounting in the context of environmental sustainability. The seminar aims to demystify the complex concepts associated with carbon trading, exploring how businesses and organizations can measure, report, and offset their carbon emissions. By delving into the intricacies of carbon markets and trading mechanisms, the seminar seeks to empower participants with the knowledge and tools necessary to navigate the evolving landscape of climate action, fostering informed decision-making and encouraging the adoption of sustainable practices in the corporate and environmental sectors.

REPORT OF THE PROGRAMME

On 19th January, the Department of Psychology conducted a national workshop on the Role of Psychology in Defence and Psychodiagnostics with a resource person V Chandramohan, Defence Clinical Psychologist (Retd) Professor of clinical psychology, Asian International University, Manipur and Central Christian University, Malawi. The program started with a prayer note presented by Florence from II BSc Psychology, followed by the welcome address delivered by Agnes Vinoj from II BSc Psychology. The Introduction of the resource person was given by Sadiya Fathima, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology.

The resource person was honored by a memento presented by our Principal Dr. Arokiyarny Geetha Rufus. The felicitation was addressed by our principal Dr. Arokiyarny Geetha Rufus. She gave a very insightful oration about the current importance of mental health and the need for Psychologists in this Era. She addressed the achievements and the contribution of the resource person to the audience.

Session one started with the presentation and lecture on the Role of Psychology in Defense given by Dr.V. Chandramohan. He started the session with his experience in defence as an Aviation psychologist from the year 1980 to 2015, 35 years of Service in the Indian Air Force. After retiring from the service, he became a Professor in various institutes and hospitals all over the nation to extend his Knowledge and experience in helping others. He is also currently the owner of an organization named PAPA, the Professional Applied Psychologist Association.

He shared his insight on different designations and positions currently presented to a psychologist in the Defence and encouraged the students to focus on employment within the field. He discussed his Ph.D. Thesis on the management of air sickness cases with cognitive therapy and yoga therapy and also how they Diagnose Airmen with complaints of Somatic symptom disorders using personality trait tests such as Projective techniques during the Kargil Conflicts.

Objectives:

- To deepen participants' understanding of design thinking principles and methodologies.
- To inspire and motivate students to engage in the practical aspect of design thinking by fostering prototyping skills.
- Participants were guided on how to translate their ideas into tangible prototypes, encouraging a hands-on approach to problem-solving and innovation.
- To cultivate an innovation-centric mindset among the participants. Through discussions and interactive sessions, students were encouraged to think creatively, approach problem-solving with empathy, and embrace a culture of continuous innovation.

Programme Summary:

The Seminar on Design Thinking and Prototype, organized by the Department of Psychology in collaboration with the Patrician Institution's Innovation Council, unfolded as an insightful exploration into the realm of innovation on January 31, 2023. The session commenced at 12:05 P.M., attracting a diverse group of enthusiastic students from various disciplines at the Patrician College of Arts and Science in Adyar, Chennai. Ms. Raichel Diana, the esteemed resource person and Assistant Professor in the Department of Social Work, led the seminar. As a MoE Certified Innovation Ambassador, her expertise and engaging presentation style captivated the audience, creating an interactive and dynamic learning environment. The program aimed to deepen participants' understanding of design thinking principles and methodologies, with a particular focus on motivating students to translate ideas into tangible prototypes.

The core of the seminar revolved around the practical application of design thinking, where Ms. Raichel Diana guided students through hands-on prototyping exercises. This interactive session allowed participants to bridge the gap between theory and practice, fostering a deeper comprehension of the design thinking process. The seminar successfully contributed to the cultivation of an innovation-centric mindset among the attendees, encouraging them to approach problem-solving with empathy and creativity. The event not only increased awareness of design thinking principles but also provided a platform for students to improve their prototyping skills, ultimately fostering a culture of innovation within the academic community. The Seminar on Design Thinking and Prototype at Patrician College served as a pivotal moment for students to gain valuable insights, equipping them with the tools to navigate complex problem-solving scenarios in their academic and professional journeys.

Outcomes:

- The seminar successfully increased participants' awareness of design thinking principles, helping them understand its application in solving complex problems.
- Students gained insights into the user-centric approach and its significance in fostering innovation.

- The program contributed to the cultivation of a culture of innovation among the participants.
- By emphasizing the importance of creative thinking and problem-solving, students were motivated to approach challenges with a fresh perspective, fostering a conducive environment for innovation.

Students Feedback:a. Student 1:

"The seminar was an eye-opener for me. Ms. Raichel's insights into design thinking were inspiring. The hands-on session on prototyping was incredibly valuable. I feel more equipped to approach problem-solving with creativity now." -

b. Student 2:

"I appreciate the practical approach of the seminar. Learning about design thinking through real-life examples and then applying it during the prototyping session made the concepts more tangible. It was a refreshing and engaging experience."

c. Student 3:

"As a psychology student, I didn't realize the relevance of design thinking in my field. This seminar broadened my perspective, and I now see how innovative problem-solving can be applied in various aspects of psychology. Ms. Raichel's passion for the subject was contagious!"

Report on What Is Net Zero Why It Is Important

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME

The objective of organizing an event on "Net Zero and Its Importance" is to educate and raise awareness among participants about the concept of achieving a net-zero carbon footprint and its crucial significance in addressing climate change. The event aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of what "Net Zero" entails, focusing on balancing the amount of greenhouse gases emitted with an equivalent amount removed or offset. By emphasizing the environmental, social, and economic importance of striving for net-zero emissions, the event seeks to inspire informed action and foster a collective commitment to sustainable practices, encouraging individuals and organizations to play an active role in mitigating climate change for a more sustainable future.

RESOURCE PERSON PROFILEMRS AR.SRIRNJNI S SRINIVASAN

Sriranjani Srinivasan, Global Network for Zero Associate Vice President of Technical Development, heads the teams responsible for project and program development and execution. As a sustainability and engineering expert, she ensures that GNFZ and its partners' organizational needs are satisfied from beginning to end, from technical to educational. Sriranjani's design, implementation, and evaluation of many initiatives support GNFZ's aims and vision.

Sriranjani will put a lot of effort into increasing the network's instructional resources. In addition to increasing existing programming, she is creating new content within the structure of the organization and discovering ways to distribute this content in module form.

GNFZ is not Sriranjani's first leadership role in the environmental sustainability and built environment arena. Prior to joining, she established The Affordable Green Company to encourage recycling, sustainability, and climate action. Sriranjani is an educator at heart, having worked as a professor for numerous colleges affiliated with Anna University. She holds professional certifications from the Indian Green Building Council, LEED, and WELL. I'm sure their insights will be both illuminating and motivating.

FEEDBACK

Students offered positive feedback for the seminar on "What is Net Zero and Why It is Important," commending the event for providing a clear and insightful understanding of the concept. Attendees appreciated the comprehensive exploration of net-zero practices and their pivotal role in addressing climate change. The seminar's emphasis on the environmental significance, coupled with practical insights into sustainable living and carbon offsetting, resonated well with the audience. Many students expressed that the seminar heightened their awareness of the urgency of achieving net-zero emissions and inspired them to adopt more sustainable behaviors. Overall, the seminar succeeded in effectively communicating the importance of striving for net-zero and empowering students to contribute meaningfully to a more sustainable future.
