DEPARTMENT REPORTS

FRENCH

“Learning another Language is not just learning different names for things but learning, understanding and accepting other ways to think about the same thing” – Flora Lewis.

In the spirit of the above quote, the French language department prepares its students to broaden their empathy, cultural outlook and mind set to tolerate others' opinion and views and to heighten their employable skills.

L'ESPIRIT, the French cultural club of our college has conducted many competitions in various occasions to provide a platform for the French students to express their linguistic and cultural expertise in French.

On the eve of Independence Day celebrations, an essay writing competition and a poetry writing competition on the topic “l'Inde de nos rêves” was conducted and 24 students submitted their essays and three students came up with their poems.

In October the club held various competitions for the current batch of French learning students and all the French students were encouraged to take part at least in one competition. An essay competition with an abstract topic “Elargissez Vos Connaissances” was held, in which 16 students participated. A barrier free Story writing competition was held in which five students participated. All the entries were highly appreciated by both the judges. A poster making competition with the topic “La culture française” was held and 26 participants submitted their posters. A quiz on the glorious French revolution was held online in which 124 responses were recorded. All the participants who scored above 60% were offered E-certificates.

The response from the student community was stupendous and their thought process, linguistic skills, general knowledge, imagination and uniqueness in their communication skills were amazing. The participants on their side were content to discover their talents and abilities.

Apart from that the club also organised two guest lectures by eminent and experienced DELF Examination trainer Ms. Abirami Santosh, on the topics “Comment rédiger un essai efficace?” and “Les expressions hypothétiques françaises” for first year and second year students respectively.

In the academic year 2020–21, The French Language Department has taken small, simple and steady measures to enhance the learning interests of its students.

Objective:

To promote spiritual and social awareness among the students.

Christmas Day Celebration-12th December, 2020

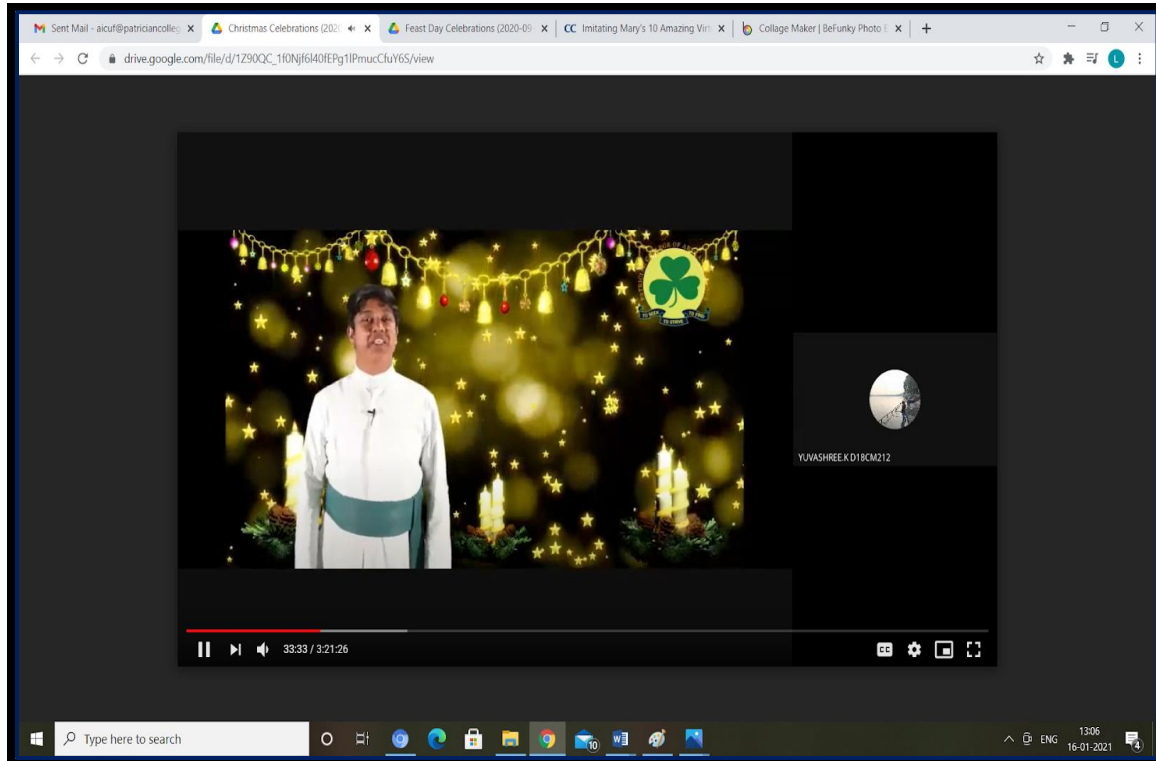

Christmas is a festival which commemorates the birth of Jesus Christ. It encourages the feelings of oneness and harmony. Christmas is the season of faith, peace, joy, love and sharing, even though it was difficult to gather together due to Covid-19 we celebrated Christmas Day virtually with the same spirit of joy and enthusiasm. Christmas Day was celebrated on 12th December 2020 at 11 a.m through Google Meet and You Tube Live stream. The Chief Guest, Dr. J. Gnanapushpam, former Principal of Patrician College conveyed a meaningful Christmas message. Competitions such as Poster Making and Christmas tree decoration was conducted online. Many students actively participated and the winners of the competitions were announced. As Christmas is known for caring and sharing, our students generously contributed Rice and Dal bags, which was distributed to Jeevadhanam, the Home for Street Children, St. Louis Church, Adyar and to the needy students of Patrician College.
