

Event: Pongal Celebration*Date: 12.01.24

The Pongal festival was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 12th January 2024 at the college campus. A "Unity Pongal" was prepared to remind the students of Tamil cultural traditions and way of life. Prior to the Pongal celebration, the event was inaugurated by the college's Director, Dr. Arutachakothar Stanley, the Director of Education, Dr. Fatima Vasanth, the Principal, Dr. Arokiya Mary Geetha Rubes, and the Vice-Principal, Dr. Anand Priya. Along with them, the department heads, professors, and students all joined in the celebration by preparing and sharing Pongal.

Various competitions related to Tamil culture and arts were held among all the departments. Notably, these included Kolam drawing, Pongal preparation, traditional Tamil games like "Uriyadiythal" (pot breaking), "Karumbu Udaiththal" (sugarcane breaking), and "Kayaru Izhuthal" (pulling the rope). Additionally, students showcased rural Tamil life by preparing and presenting traditional earthen food dishes, as well as setting up small huts to depict village life. Through these activities, students experienced and appreciated Tamil traditions.

Furthermore, traditional Tamil arts such as "Paraiyattam" (drumming), "Oyilattam" (dance), "Poikal Kuthirai Aattam" (stilt horse dance), and "Silappattam" (a type of folk dance) were performed by the students. In these cultural competitions, the Department of Commerce (Shift 1) won the first prize, the Department of Business Management secured the second prize, and the Department of Accountancy and Finance (Shift 1) won the third prize, with the Department of Accountancy and Finance (Shift 2) also being awarded.

The Director, Director of Education, Principal, and Vice-Principal presented the prizes to the winners. The event concluded with the distribution of sweet Pongal to all attendees.

Event: Vocational Training Programme*Date: 24.07.23 to 28.07.23

A vocational training program for students is a targeted educational initiative designed to provide young learners with the practical skills and industry-specific knowledge needed for successful entry into the job market. These programs often complement traditional schooling by offering hands-on experiences and technical instruction in fields such as information technology, healthcare, culinary arts, construction, and automotive repair. By focusing on real-world skills and workplace competencies, vocational training allows students to explore their career interests early on and prepares them for various trade jobs or advanced certifications. This practical approach not only enhances employability but also caters to diverse learning styles, helping students who may prefer skill-based education over purely academic pathways.

Event: International Seminar on Social Entrepreneurship and Global Challenges*Date: 19.08.23

Participants explored how social entrepreneurship can act as a driving force in achieving sustainable development goals. The discussions highlighted the potential for innovative business models to create positive social and environmental impacts while also being economically viable. The seminar delved into how technological advancements and innovation can disrupt traditional models of addressing global challenges. Participants discussed the role of technologies like blockchain, artificial intelligence, and clean energy solutions in creating scalable and lasting change. The seminar facilitated a deeper understanding of the potential of social entrepreneurship to tackle global challenges. Participants gained valuable insights into effective strategies, ethical considerations, and innovative approaches for addressing pressing issues. Networking opportunities fostered collaboration and partnership-building among attendees from different sectors and geographic regions. The seminar acknowledged the challenges that social entrepreneurs face, including funding constraints, regulatory hurdles, and skepticism about their business models. Resilience strategies and stories of overcoming adversity were shared. The International Seminar on Social Entrepreneurship and Global Challenges provided an enriching platform for thought leaders, practitioners, and stakeholders to explore the transformative power of social entrepreneurship. By addressing the critical intersection between entrepreneurship and global challenges, the event emphasized the need for innovative, collaborative, and ethical solutions to create a positive impact on the world. Attendees gained a deeper understanding of the potential of social entrepreneurship to drive impactful change across diverse global challenges.

This program focuses on promoting the cultural and economic value of handloom weaving, which has been an integral part of traditional craftsmanship in many regions. Through workshops, exhibitions, and interactive sessions, the program helps participants understand the intricate process of handloom production, from spinning and dyeing to weaving and finishing. It also highlights the importance of supporting handloom artisans and encourages sustainable consumption by choosing handwoven fabrics over mass-produced textiles. By raising awareness about the environmental and social impact of handloom industries, the program fosters a deeper appreciation for these time-honored practices and aims to ensure their continued relevance in a rapidly changing world. Additionally, it seeks to empower local weavers by creating platforms for them to showcase their work and improve their livelihoods.

Event: Wellness Awareness Program*Date: 15.07.23

By being well presented, clean and tidy, people can feel more confident, especially in social situations. Good hygiene is critical for preventing the spread of infectious diseases and helping children lead long, healthy lives. It also prevents them from missing school, resulting in better learning outcomes. For families, good hygiene means avoiding illness and spending less on health care. Deodorants are designed to help prevent body odor—and keep you smelling like a field of lilacs. While it won't stop you from sweating, deodorant can eliminate the naturally occurring bacteria on your skin and help get rid of unpleasant body odors.

Rizwana After explaining the importance of personal Hygiene and women Empowerment distributed Rexona Deodorant to all the girls who attended the seminar.

Event: Beach Clean up*Date: 28.07.23

The program was initiated to create awareness amongst students and the general public with regards to ocean conservancy and keeping the environment clean. The Department of Management for the beach cleaned up as a part of Patrician seeds outreach programme at Besant Nagar beach on 28th July 2023. Around 55 students from 1st BBA participated in the program. The beach cleanup took place from 2.00 pm-5.00pm. The students gathered together and cleaned up the trash that were thrown around the beach. Huge amounts of waste were collected by the students in hopes of making the beach clean up a success. The students had a great exposure and understood the importance of a clean and a healthy environment. The clean up also gave the students a better understanding towards rendering social service for the welfare of the society. The students created a safer environment by removing pieces of glass, metal, shrapnel etc. and had an opportunity to gather new data about the state of our coasts and the type of trash that pollutes them

The Citizen Consumer Club of Patrician College of Arts and Science, Adyar, Chennai – 600020, organized a Street Play on Consumer Protection and Awareness at Malligaipoo Nagar Kuppam, Adyar on 11th August 2023 at 1.30 p.m. In this regard, a contingent of 20 student volunteers along with 3 staff members visited the area to conduct the activity. The gist of the entire street play revolved around the Consumer Protection Act 2019 (Amendment) to make the general public aware about fraudulent merchants and trade activities. The students played a skit which contains information about adulteration, sale of expired products, certification of products with quality standards, unfair prices activities. In the skit, the team also disseminated information about the website details of Consumer Protection Act 2019 (Amendment), Consumer Protection Forum and National Consumer Helpline No 1915 which would help the residents of Malligaipoo Nagar to represent their complaint against fraudulent merchants and trade activities. The public were able to understand deep truths and facts about consumer protection through simple gestures and dialogues that reached them effectively. They understood how they would be cheated through the depictions of various evils of fraudulent merchants and unfair trade practices. The students were able to gather a group of residents to the place of the activity. Thereby they were able to improve their persuasion skills. The street play team proved its creative skills through the execution of the play.
